CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE BULLETIN

DAILY BRIEF

UK-Cyprus: (The British Government has decided to try to arrest the deterioration of relations between the Greek and Turkish communities in Cyprus by informal diplomatic approaches in Nicosia and Ankara.)

25X1 (Admitting that its ideas are not "startlingly new," the Commonwealth Relations Office in London says that it will attempt to promote an informal meeting of the Greek, Turkish, and Cypriot foreign ministers, perhaps in December. The purpose would be to discuss solutions to the constitutional problems of Cyprus.)

(The British, in the meantime, will try to deter Archbishop Makarios from altering the constitution unilaterally, and to persuade Ankara not to insist on partition of Cyprus.)

(The British intend to urge Makarios to put forward "reasonable and fair" proposals for altering the constitution. At present it contains elaborate safeguards protecting the interests of the Turkish minority.)

NOTES

USSR-Cuba: The Soviet ship Orenburg, probably carrying a military cargo, is in the Western Atlantic and should arrive in a Cuban port by 23 or 24 October. The light load of this vessel--2,880 tons--suggests it may be carrying military equipment rather than ammunition, spares, and replacement parts, which apparently made up the bulk of cargo in the last two major Soviet military shipments to Cuba. Photography indicates the ship has no cargo on deck.
